

2nd

JULY
2004

FRIDAY

Lille Seminar

La Maison du Commerce

Local partnership activity in old industrial areas - the key lessons for policy

- 09.30 Coffee and registration
- 10.00 Introduction
John Bell, IDELE Project Director, ECOTEC Research & Consulting Ltd.
- 10.05 The IDELE process and its importance to policies for local employment development
Andrew Chapman, Deputy Head of Unit A4 (ESF Policy Co-ordination, Employment Local Development), DG Employment and Social Affairs
- 10.10 Local Employment Development: A Review
Marjorie Jouen, Notre Europe
- 10.30 Lessons from Experience 1
10.30 Lille, France
10.50 Catalonia, Spain
11.10 Glasgow, UK
- 11.30 Coffee
- 11.45 Lessons from Experience 2
11.45 Marinha Grande, Portugal
12.05 Leipzig, Germany
- 12.25 Katowice, Poland: A New Member State Perspective
- 12.40 Old Industrial Regions: The Place of Local Action for Employment and Development
Xavier Greffe, Matisse-LES-Université Paris I
- 13.00 Lunch
- 14.30 Reflections on the 'Lessons from Experience' and making the link to the policy context
John Bell & James Rampton, ECOTEC Research & Consulting Ltd.
- 14.45 LED: the significance to policy frameworks
John Morley, Former Director General of DG Employment and Social Affairs
Open Discussion: Chair: Peter Lloyd, Expert adviser to ECOTEC and to the European Commission
- 15.15 Coffee
- 15.30 Reviving old city regions: lessons for local partnership action
Jonathan Potter, OECD LEED Programme
Open Discussion: Chair: Peter Lloyd, Expert adviser to ECOTEC and to the European Commission
- 16.00 Closing Remarks
Rapporteur: Professor Peter Lloyd, Expert adviser to ECOTEC and to the European Commission
- 16.15 Close